

Quantitative Process, LLC

PRIVACY POLICY

January 2013

The following non-public client information is typically obtained and recorded in the course of providing advisory services and products:

- Income and personal assets
- Social security numbers
- Email, addresses, and phone numbers

It is the Policy of Quantitative Process, LLC to not disclose any customer information, confidential or otherwise, to any party other than as authorized by the client or as required by law.

- All client information is stored electronically in secure password protected systems.
- Electronic communications with confidential data are sent in a secured format.
- Documents with confidential data are immediately shredded upon obsolescence.

Joseph P. Lindsley Sr.
President